

Georgia Scout Day with the Georgia Legislature
Wednesday Feb 28, 2018

This would be an excused absence from school. Troop 629 has limited slots for “fully” uniformed scouts who wish to participate and we will need an adult to participate with them.

Day starts at 8:00 AM to go to the State Capitol and concludes around 3:30 PM return.

Activities should include Capital orientations, some acting as pages for House or Senate members, capital education tour, observing both house and senate in session, a meeting with Lawmakers and finally an opportunity to meet with their State Senator and House representative for any personal questions or issues.

If you wish to participate, have the proper uniform (or can get one for the day), this means green scout pants/shorts with scout shirt, and has parent’s permission let your SM know you wish to be considered.

This event is for Boy Scouts only.
